

The Collegiate 1961

Dedication

In Humble Appreciation for the many years of faithful services rendered this book is gratefully dedicated to
Mr. Frank Brown

Message from the Inspector

In fairy tales, wishes were usually granted in three's. I have three for you at this time:

That you may find work that is a little above your abilities

That you may do this work well;

That you may enjoy it.

There is nothing better than you can ever receive than work which you find useful, congenial, and challenging. Whether or not the work is congenial depends as much on the worker as on the work. All work has elements of routine and monotony; interest in it will come from a vigorous interest in its problems. The surest road to satisfaction from your work is the road of intelligent attack on its daily problems.

Intelligent and energetic people find stimulation in problems they find challenging and are equipped to meet. If, in your years at Winkler Collegiate, you have discovered this truth, and have gained some substantial enthusiasm for the work before you, there is sufficient ground for prediction of success.

A. C. Heaney

Chairman's Message

The School Board wishes to congratulate the graduates of this occasion and wish each one much success in the years to come.

We trust that the opportunities for service which are open to you as you leave school will challenge you to give your very best. Your participation in the affairs of our community and our country, are basic to the progress we show as a people and also as individuals.

Our concept of life which includes the family unit, the home, the community and our country, in the above mentioned order, is basic to the success of our democracy. The attention we give to spiritual and educational values will determine the extent of our success in developing this concept.

May you all grow in true wisdom and knowledge, and may you all succeed in finding a place of service where your talents will be used to serve God and our fellowmen.

Message from the Principal

But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength;
they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.

----Isa. 40:31

In our school it would appear as if the emphasis is on the student who excels - the top academic student, the good debator, the orator, the dramatic performer, the star basketball player -- and on the restricted groups which make up the basketball team, the drama group, or the orchestra. This appearance may be correct, even as the drum will not fail to be noticed in an orchestra of instruments.

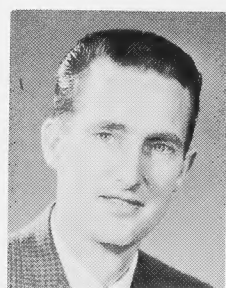

However, as much as we need top performers, leaders, and directors in our society, the number of them which are required is nevertheless limited. More than these, we need individuals and groups of individuals who are hard-working and faithful, who can be entrusted with a task, and who will strive to do their duty whether they receive public acclaim or not.

The majority of our students and graduates will have to fall into this latter group. We hope that most of our young men and women go from this school capable of this task --- not to be waited upon, but to be willing servants of God and man, and that they might "walk, and not faint", as Isaiah said.

The Art of Baby Sitting

Have you ever tried holding a squalling infant in one arm while with your other hand you are trying to pour milk into a narrow necked bottle? Have you every felt three little "Humans" methodically biting, scratching and kicking any tender spot on your body which is in reach? If you haven't you should try babysitting. It is a thrilling "sport" combining danger with new experiences to produce a heady mixture which at times proves almost unbearable.

Within a small family even a male cannot consider himself immune to this "call of the wild". The action generally begins with a long argument between the younger members of the family. Since they have discovered that the parents are going out, both prospective babysitters realize that they either have an enormous amount of homework or they dare not risk babysitting while they have a cold.

The cheerful loser dries his tears and prepares for battle, while the victor leaves the scene of oncoming strife for the quieter environment of a friend's home. The infant, senses that the sitter is in no mood to play, is very co-operative and emits a loud wail of discontent. Even though the baby books insist that a child cries only when it needs something, that elusive thing is often hard to find. In this case, however, when a practised hand feels the well padded posterior of the little noise-maker, they quietly adjourn to the bedroom. Behind closed door there is a loud yelp as a careless finger is pinned to a diaper.

Playing with a baby is necessary to keep it in the right mood, but this can be a real challenge. Smile at him and he will let out a shriek, hand him a rattle and it is quickly thrown back in the general direction of your face. If you ever lose your temper and use force, the built in siren will soon be rising to a new crescendo.

Another amusing incident in the life of a babysitter is the process of feeding the object of your miseries. Some sitters, like myself, are no cooks and the directions on the Pablum box seem somewhat vague. Trying to make a true solution while ignoring the walls in the next room can be a harrowing experience. The soggy, colourless, putty, which is the result of fifteen minutes labour is now ready for consumption. With the infant on one knee, the fun begins. As the loaded spoon approaches the mouth which, when used for crying is as big as a cave, but is now closed, the little consumer shakes his head and a heavy beard of Pablum stretches from ear to ear. The little scene ends with the Pablum bowl perched upside down on the other knee and the Pablum everywhere.

Since I am discussing only the lighter sides of babysitting, I will omit the gory details describing the trials of bedtime-burns, broken bottles, and the fast fading supply of diapers. The little "angel" is finally tucked into bed and after a few unsuccessful attempts the babysitter succeeds in sneaking from the room without breaking the peaceful silence.

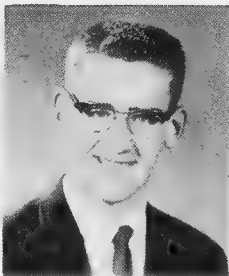

Even though I have at places exaggerated the problems of babysitting, this art requires the finesse, tact, and experience of a diplomat.

GRADUATES 1961

MARY ANN BRAUN - Mary Ann is attending our high school for the first year. Despite having to move from her home town of Wingard, Sask., and having to adjust to different teachers and subjects, Mary Ann enjoys herself in Winkler. In her subjects she places Drama in preference to Chemistry. Mary Ann's extracurricular activities include, I. S. C. F., Young Peoples, singing in choirs. For an ambition she is debating teaching and nursing.

RON BROWN - In school Ron does his work well and after four he spends most of his time on his Mercury by patching its tires, filling the tank, or, less frequently driving it. The reliable Merc takes Ron to the Cannery or beet-field in summer, and in winter takes him to basketball practice, choir practice or the Harvest Inn. At the present Ron does not know what his future consists of, but we are sure he will choose a good career.

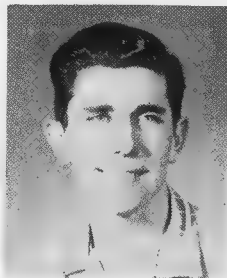

ANNE DOERKSEN - Anne is studious, intelligent, and attractive. She takes part in a majority of school and church activities as a member of the Choir Committee and Young Peoples. She excels in Literature and Composition. A rather quiet girl, Anne takes her studies seriously. She hopes to make the grade as a secretary - but time will tell.

ED DOELL - Ed joined the Winkler ranks after eleven years in Horndean. He is often seen gazing blissfully out the window -- his thoughts vary from cares to memories unknown. His Austin offered many thrills, but his '51 Ford has much more in store for him. Although his homework is sometimes undone he always shines in Prose. His interests include football, curling, skating, and commenting on current events.

SHARON DOELL - Sharon, a blue-eyed blond, is well known for her singing ability. Her interest in Drama lead us to believe that she would make a very good actress, in which career her love for dancing would be a great asset. Sharon keenly enjoys skating, bowling, and prefers dark, handsome lads. She says her future career will be secretarial work.

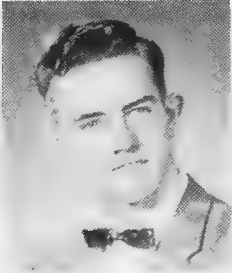

ABE DYCK - Abe, reserved, intelligent, and studious, is one of the "brains" in 12B. He continued his schooling in Winkler after three years of service in the R. C. A. F. All the subjects interest him, especially English. His main hobby seems to be driving his Studebaker to and from school. Next year Abe intends to take Arts course at the University. We wish him every success.

JOHN DUECK - John, a brown-haired, blue-eyed boy, hails from Blumenfeld and has attended Winkler Collegiate since Grade Ten. John takes an active part in sports such as baseball, hockey, curling and skating. Passing Physics and German does not worry him and he usually manages to obtain a good mark in other subjects. John is a quiet boy in class but can be heard singing bass in the school choir.

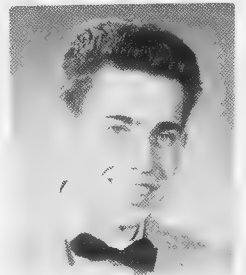

HARRY DYCK - Harry is a "shark" at sports. He obtained next to top honors when competing at Fargo in the mile race, and received two well deserved medals, one in Manitoba and the other in North Dakota. His favorite sport is hockey, and whenever this powerhouse skates onto the ice, the Winkler Royals always hope for victory. Being an athlete of high calibre is a reason for his being a member of the Sports Committee. With his determination, Harry is sure to make Grade Twelve.

J. HOWARD DYCK - Howard Dyck, known as "U. N. Dyck" to his friends has done much during the course of the year to deserve this title. Last summer he was chosen to attend the U. N. Seminar in Brandon, and later won an all expense paid trip to the Canadian capitol and to the United Nations Headquarters at New York. This fall in public speaking his ability won him the provincial high school oratorical contest. Howard is active in quartets, year book Committee and choir. These various abilities and a pleasant personality will make him a success in the field he chooses.

JOHN DYCK - John recently moved to Winkler from a farm near Carman. He took Grade Ten at M. C. I. and has been taking Grades Eleven and Twelve at Winkler High. Physics and Maths are his favorite subjects but he has some difficulty in Poetry and Drama. John enjoys sports such as curling, skating and hockey. Next year John plans to attend either the University or Teachers College.

MARY LOU DYCK - A dimpled smile with a quiet "Good morning," tell us that Mary Lou is back in school and resuming her position near the teacher's desk, a place which does not seem to bother her a bit. Despite being a polio victim, Mary Lou is an intelligent student who is almost always engrossed in her books. Literature is reputed to be her favorite subject. Mary Lou took a stenographer's course in Winnipeg last year and returned to Winkler to work as a stenographer before entering school to complete her Grade Twelve.

SYLVIA DYCK - Talented Sylvia spends her spare time watching T. V. and reading. She is active in church activities, such as singing in the choir, and working with the Young Peoples' Committee. Sylvia is a very efficient Choir Committee convener, an I. S. C. F. member, and sings alto in the collegiate choir. Her favourite subjects are Poetry and Drama. Sylvia's personality will lend a cheerful atmosphere to the Winkler Bible School next year.

KEN ENNS

Ken is the teacher's pet, which is probably a reason for his occupying a front desk. Studies cramp his style but he has a remarkable affinity for 50's during his exams. His hobbies include curling, skating, building cars, and drawing. His friendly "What you doin'" is well known by all his associates. His '49 Fargo Fleetside is his pet peeve. Driving, singing, and joking rank first in his abilities.

MURRAY ENNS

"Furry", a stout farm lad, collects stamps as a hobby. Skating, volleyball, and tennis are his favorite sports. Murray participates in many extracurricular activities, as member of the choir, orchestra, I. S. C. F., and Student Council. Physics is his favorite subject but Maths holds little joy for him. Murray's jocular remarks always bring laughter into the classroom.

CHRIS FEHR

Short but sweet, Chris radiates charm and sparkling enthusiasm which draw people to her like a magnet. Chris is a small whirlwind on the basketball court and is always difficult for the opposing team to stop. Her enthusiasm does not always lend itself quite as well to school work as it does to sports. After completion of High School, Chris intends to pursue the nursing profession.

HENRY FEHR

Henry comes to us from the M. C. I. and is an active member in school activities. He is the class representative for the 12-B in the Student Council. Henry is also an active member of the Drama and Yearbook committees. His pleasant personality brightens up the classroom, and his way with the fairer sex is envied. This fair-haired lad hopes to make a career out of farming.

KATY FEHR

Katy comes from Glencross and her home away from home is 9th Street, where she shares a room with her sister. Katy has now brightened her little corner of Winkler Collegiate for four years. Cooking, clothes, and watching T. V. are among her many interests. Her future is undecided but she shows an interest in office work. Her cute giggle and friendly attitude have helped her make life pleasant for everyone around her.

BETTY FRIESEN

Betty is quiet, intelligent, and has a pleasing personality. The captain and star of the basketball team, she also enjoys volleyball, baseball and skating. Should you hear the expression "Oh, but..." you can be certain Betty's around. Betty is an active member of the school choir and I. S. C. F. Whatever her future may be, we may be certain Betty will make it a success.

JAKE GOERTZEN

Jake, a handsome, dark-haired lad, sits near the back of the room, but causes little trouble in that strategic position. He is a star volleyball player, and also enjoys skating. His extracurricular activities, however, do not keep him from faithfully completing his homework every day. Because of his quiet disposition, this young man's future occupation is as yet unknown.

DONALD GRUENER

Don, a dark-haired, intelligent young man comes to us from the Birkenhead S. D. Don, a lineman on the school football team, is an ardent sportsman and is, therefore, often seen at the local curling rink. Chemistry and Drama are his keys to fame, Verse, however, spells "worse" for him. Don's ultimate fate seems to be sitting at the front of a classroom.

AARON HILDEBRAND

"Moose" is the heavyweight of the class. Though studies cramp his style, he usually manages to receive passing marks. He is an active choir member and sings in the school choir, male-voice choir, and church choir. His activities include playing basketball and driving his car. Aaron is rather shy in class but loses his shyness when on his own. His hopes for next year centre around Teacher's College.

ABE HILDEBRAND

This popular young man is the president of the Student Council, captain of the basketball team, and the bass in the school quartet. He skipped a rink in the Manitoba High School Bonspiel this year. Other activities in which he excels are skating, skiing, singing in the choir, playing baseball and football and attending I. S. C. F. In spite of all these activities his marks are among the best. He has a good sense of humour and is as practical as his Austin.

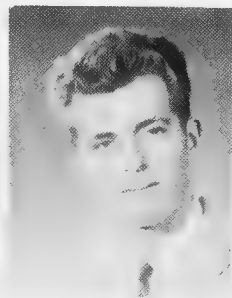

JAMES HOEPPNER

Jim hails from Valleyfield S. D. and attended Winkler High for the first time last year. His cheery countenance and timely comments keep the boys in good spirits. He quenches his insatiable thirst for reading by indulging himself in the Reader's Digest. Jim aids the bass section in the school choir and delights in sports. His high marks are excellent indications of becoming a teacher.

FRANK HOEPPNER

Frank is a versatile lad who never tires at skipping a rink, tackling a halfback, or tinkering with a mechanical device. During classes he is often seen scratching his head or devouring a Maths problem. Comp. and Prose require much extra work but his half ton Mercury seldom tarries along the homeward trail. Frank participates in several activities and makes an excellent student.

VICTOR HUEBNER

This tall dark scholar (?) from Manitou is active in most school activities -- and a few that are not listed in the school curriculum. Though not a lover of Poetry he usually manages to pass most of the other subjects. Vic sings in the choir, plays basketball, skis, and evades work. He remains one jump ahead of starvation by frequenting the Harvest Inn whenever possible.

RUTH JANZEN

Ruth, the convener of the Literary Committee, enjoys playing basketball, singing, and taking part in various church functions. Another one of her activities is talking behind an open scribbler, and at times doing homework. We wonder whether her sometimes unfinished homework is due only to her policy "I never let homework interfere with my sleep". Her future -- Well it is as dark to her as it is to us.

MARGARET KIRK

This blue-eyed lass likes spending her time doing other things besides homework, although it is usually completed. She enjoys three kinds of movies in particular: hilarious comedy, movies pertaining to history, and movies with a religious theme. After graduation she hopes to enter nurses' training. The fact that she obtains her highest marks in Chemistry Lab will surely stand her in good stead.

ROSEMARY KIRK

Petite Rosemary is one of the only set of twins in our school. She is always quiet and spends much time with her books. Rosemary does not take an active part in many school activities, but instead spends much of her time in reading. She obtains good marks and plans to go into nurses' training. Like Margaret, her twin, she hopes to be a private nurse some day.

CLIFF KLASSEN

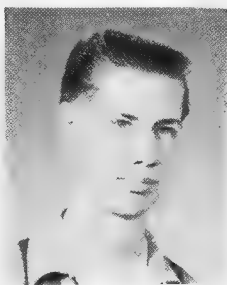

"Freddie" is not exactly what you term an angel, although he is not extremely bad. His droll statements never fail to bring laughter from every corner of the room. Cliff is an ardent fan of "Mad" Magazine and is often heard quoting from it. He is an expert, or reputed to be, at curling and bowling, the two sports he enjoys most. The goal at which Cliff is currently aiming is optometry.

BRENDA KLASSEN

Brenda is a whiz at Maths and is sure to succeed in the business career she hopes to pursue. She is a keen spectator at sports and takes part in swimming, volleyball, and skating. Brenda enjoys most of the "pop" music and prefers watching T.V. to studying. At present her main interest is in lads residing on the other side of the International Boundary.

MENNO KLASSEN

Good things come in small packages. Menno comes to the collegiate this year from Greysville. Although somewhat short of stature, he is certainly not the smallest where Physics and Chemistry are concerned. Menno takes an active part in curling and spends much of his leisure time in giving the class a variety of anecdotes. His ambition and initiative are sure to see him through at all times.

WESLEY KLASSEN

"Mooney" as he is more commonly known is just another one of the admirers of the opposite sex. Even though the distance he walks to school each morning is practically nil, he rarely arrives on time. He takes an active part in curling and is an ardent hunter. His leisure time is spent at pencil drawing and woodwork. Architecture is the goal he is aiming at.

MARION KROEGER

Marion hails from Rivers, and is attending Winkler Collegiate for the first year. Even though she participates in the choir and other school activities, she scores high marks in her schoolwork. Her favourite subject is Literature. As a pastime she reads, converses in French and sews on missing buttons. She takes a keen interest in bowling, jiving, and boating. At present Marion is considering taking a business course.

MERVYN KROEGER

Mervyn is our capable I. S. C. F. president, the baritone in the school quartet, and a member of the Student Council. He is also a member of the Literary Committee. One of his hobbies is cooking; his broiled steaks are hard to beat. Mervyn also enjoys ping-pong, hunting, and curling. His sense of responsibility, initiative, and diligence make him a very successful student. With these attributes Mervyn is bound to be a success.

VIRGINIA LOEWEN

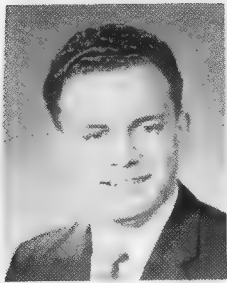

When someone comes rushing down the corridor at one minute to nine, it is none other than Ginny. She insists on impressing the teachers by carrying home stacks of books. When she walks to school she casts a cursory glance at the school across the street to see if a '55 Chev has already made its appearance. Besides being on the I. S. C. F. executive for the fourth year Ginny plays basketball and sings in the choir. Most likely she will be found at Teachers College next year.

JEANETTE LOEWEN

"Cookie", small and petite, is popular and easy to get along with. She occupies the front seat by the unanimous demand of the teachers. A very efficient chairman of the social committee, she also takes part in curling, singing and is a very determined member of the basketball team. Jeanette plans to attend the Manitoba Commercial College next year.

HAROLD NICKEL

Harold is of the strong, silent type. He exercises his athletic abilities on the school football squad and has an uncanny knack of breaking through the opposing line. Other sports which he enjoys are tennis and hunting, an activity which he revels in. His extra activities include aiding the tenor section of the school choir. For relaxation and entertainment, he plays the organ. Harold is an industrious and persevering student, and will doubtless succeed in his chosen career.

ALVIN PAULS

Alvin is the class comedian and is well known for his mimics and imitations of others, as well as for his witty remarks. This is probably the reason for his being convener of the Drama Committee. Alvin is always well-dressed and is a handsome lad with brown eyes and a Roman nose. He plays cello in the school orchestra and sings tenor in the choir. Chemistry and poetry are two subjects he enjoys. Alvin plans to attend Teacher's College.

BERNICE PENNER

Bernice, an ardent basketball fan, hails from Kaleida. Her most noticeable feature is her chamaleon eyes and her ability to change color. She likes to be chauffeured home for weekends. Bernice is envied for her ability of imitating in excellent fashion the Low German dialect. In the far future she plans to be a stewardess, but at present her mind is as changeable as her eyes.

DAVE PETERS

Dave has attended the Winkler Collegiate for three years and daily drives his father's '57 Chev. to school. He is five feet, seven inches tall, has dark hair, and is a muscular farm lad. Getting a good education is his main desire. He usually obtains passing marks but resigns the post of head of the class to others. Dave intends to go into agriculture as his future career.

KATHERINE PETERS

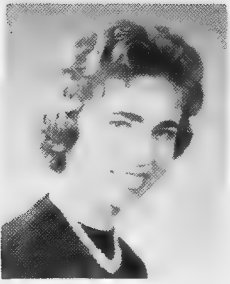

This friendly, studious girl has won many friends during her first year at Winkler. She enjoys sports and in fall was an active member of the Girls' Volleyball team. Katy enjoys school, including homework, but prefers physics and maths to Literature classes. A graduate of the Elim Bible School, she is at present teaching a Sunday School class. Whatever her career, her optimism and self-determination will reward her with success.

LORNA PENNER

Lorna's outstanding personality and friendliness have won her many friends. She is a member of the school choir and social committee. Lorna is an active church member and church pianist. Her evenings are spent in baby sitting or skating. After graduation she plans to take a secretarial course. We are sure that Lorna will be a success in this field.

HILDEGARD ROSSOL - Hildegard is an ambitious girl and usually comes to school with her homework completed. She obtains her highest marks in German. This is due to the fact that she received her primary education in Germany. Her interests include studying, cooking, babysitting, singing in the choir, and reading. The practice which she received in Nurses' Aid last summer may aid her in her Nursing Career.

RON STRIEMER - After working as an electrical supply clerk for two years, Ron joined our ranks late last fall. He may often be found curling at the local rink on frosty nights. Football and volleyball also rank among his favorite sports. Painting and listening to his radio set take up the greater part of his spare time. If his ambitions are realized, this cheery lad will become an engineer.

JACOB THIESSEN - Jacob is a tall, dark, and handsome young man who readily makes a friend with anyone he meets. Jake's most prized possession is his new 1953 Olds., complete with accessories. Much of his time is spent in driving his car. Some of Jake's favorite sports are hockey and baseball. Jake believes that he will find his future occupation in the business world.

TINA THIESSEN - Though Tina could use all her spare time for skating, reading, listening to classical music, and chasing her brothers, she does her homework conscientiously and hence passes all exams with little effort. Maths problems she attacks with pleasure, but not so with Poetry questions. Tina has a friendly and optimistic nature and will doubtless employ these qualities as a teacher.

ANNE TOEWS - Ann lives on a small farm not far from town, and every morning after a frantic rush she boards the bus and rides to school. She alleges that usually something is forgotten in the confusion. Anne's favourite subjects are drama and P. T. One period that she would hate to miss is singing. Her favourite pastime is playing the piano. Anne's secret ambition is to become a teacher.

PETER TIESSEN - Pete has attended the Winkler School for twelve years. His grades have put him at the top of the class. He is the treasurer of the Student Council, and the activities which he enjoys are basketball, volleyball, and skating. Since the last year he has sung in both the collegiate and church choirs. His plans for the next year are as yet undecided.

MARY TOEWS - Mary, who spent three years at the W. C. I. has chosen the teaching profession as her goal. She takes pleasure in poetry and drama but has little love lost for mathematics. Mary does not readily express her opinion in class, but at recess she is always willing to argue her point of view. Mary participates in the school choir and in I. S. C. F. Her favourite pastime is reading.

JANICE WALKOF - Our efficient Student Council secretary comes to us from Blumstein. Her homework is always completed with answers that are the envy of the class. Janice enjoys skating, ping-pong, and singing in the school choir. Her favourite subjects in school are drama and poetry. We are sure that Janice will succeed in whatever course her future life will take.

MARJORIE WARKENTINE - Marge is always happy and never complains. She does her homework diligently and passes every exam. At her farm home we find her as a housekeeper in charge of all household duties. Although she finds little time for school activities, she enjoys sewing, cooking, skating, and tobogganing. Her ambition is to become a teacher.

IRVIN WIEBE - This tall handsome lad hails from the hills of La Riviere. During the summer he works on his father's farm. Farming is his goal and hopes to make farming his profession. Irvin's leisure time involves curling or reading Popular Mechanics Magazines. The witty remarks which he employs in Maths. class make the period more enjoyable. We have no doubt that Irvin will be successful in future years.

LORETTA WOLFE - This is Lorie's first year away from her home town of Snowflake. Her activities range from watching hockey games and skating to singing in the church choir. You may recognize Lorie by her interesting giggle. Her skill is revealed in English and Literature. Loretta intends to spend the first part of her future as a commercial artist after which she will perhaps take up a home economics course.

DAVID ZACHARIAS - Dave is a young lad who takes his work seriously. He was rewarded for his efforts last year when selected to attend the Civil Defence College at Arnprior, Ontario, last summer. Besides being an apt scholar he plays basketball and takes pleasure in other sports such as volleyball, curling and skating. Next year will probably find Dave attending University.

The football season started at the opening of school with the formation of the Winkler team, coached by Mr. D. Friesen and captained by Abe Hildebrand. Playing in the newly formed High School League, their first three games ended in low-scoring ties. In the home stretch the tempo gradually increased. In their quest for a play-off berth, the Winkler boys were pitted against the strong Plum Coulee team in the final game of the season. Winkler was trailing 13-7, but time ran out for the squad at the Plum Coulee 5 yard line. The boys thereby finished the regular campaign with a record of 2 losses, 3 ties, and a victory.

Basketball took over the spotlight in early autumn. The teams captained by Abe Hildebrand and Betty Friesen played a number of pre-season games as well as some during and after the regular season. These included, Silver Heights, Charleswood, Churchill, M.C.I., Teachers College, M.B.C.I. and Vincent Massey. During the Christmas holidays both teams were invited to the District Provincial Tourney at Winnipeg. In their games the boys narrowly shaded Grant Park and then lost to Churchill, while the girls triumphant in both encounters to cop the trophy. In league play the girls ended in third place in their division with a record of 6 wins and 4 losses. The boys were locked in a duel with Morris for top honours in the boys' class, but a late season loss to Morris forced our boys to settle for second place. Perhaps the highlight of the R. R. V. B. L. season is the annual tournament. Played this year in Winkler, it proved a great success. In two very thrilling games the Morris boys edged over Winkler 33-31 and the Altona girls won over our Winkler girls.

Curling aroused wide spread interest during the winter months. Under the very capable handling of James Letkeman, league play flourished, with the Abe Hildebrand rink topping the 16 team loop with an undefeated record. The annual High School bonspiel was won by Ed. Giesbrecht rink. During the Christmas holidays a rink consisting of Abe Hildebrand, James Letkeman, Herb Dick, and Ed. Giesbrecht travelled to Winnipeg to compete in the provincial High School championships. This rink managed to advance into the thirty-seconds before meeting defeat. In the competition for the Thiessen Transportation Trophy Winkler was represented by the Ron Striemer and James Letkeman rinks, the latter winning the second event.

In general, the school term can be considered very exciting and successful sports-wise, and many moments of these and other games will remain in the minds of those who participated, as well as the numerous spectators, for years to come.

SPORTS ACTIVITIES

Drama

The main purpose of the Drama Committee is to let the students express and develop their dramatic talents. A second but less significant purpose is to add additional funds to the school treasury.

Last year's graduating class produced a light-hearted drama, "The Little Shepherd From Kingdom Come." The leading role was carried by Johnny Wiebe with a well chosen supporting cast under the capable direction of Mr. D. Friesen. The play depicted the life of a young boy who, born and raised in the Kentucky hills, is suddenly thrust into high society as a teenager. The embarrassing experiences and humorous incidents were enjoyed by all who attended the production.

The grade eleven class of the 59-60 term entered the newly introduced drama festival. They presented "The Valiant," a play in which a condemned criminal refuses to reveal his identity despite the pleading of the priest and the warden. The part of the criminal was excellently portrayed by Howard Dyck while Peter Tiess as priest and Ron Brown as warden made the drama an unforgettable memory. Despite having to lose to Altona, who produced the same play, credit must be given to the director Miss I. Hildebrand.

Due to the large enrollment of grade twelves the class this year has been divided into two classrooms, and as a result two plays were produced by the graduating class. The twelve B's, a class of seventeen, produced a One Act Comedy, "Tell it to the Morans." The grade twelve A's a class of thirty-three produced the four act play, "Treasure in Earthen Vessels" by Francis Baker B. D. The play concerns with the life of the Christians in the Roman Era and the difficulties encountered by them due to their faith.

In an attempt to surpass the standards of last year this term's grade elevens presented "The House of Greed."

THE SOCIAL COMMITTEE

The initial project of the Social Committee was the Hallowe'en party which was held last October. The programme consisted of many exciting games and judging of costumes. Mr. G. G. Siemens won first prize for his masquerade as Abe Lincoln. The Masters of Ceremonies were Alvin Pauls and Ken Enns who provided many a hilarious laugh with their witty jokes. Foot-long hot dogs and soft drinks were served at lunch.

The annual Carol Service was held in the Mennonite Brethren Church on December the 8th. The orchestra under the direction of Mr. J. P. Redekop, played a selection of Christmas Carols to begin the programme. Mr. Henry Thiessen lead the High School Choir in the singing of a number of Christmas Carols.

The Christmas Message was delivered by Mr. Dave Friesen. Following this the teachers and students attended a party in the school auditorium. The exchange of gifts and cards was the main feature. Lunch consisted of doughnuts, sandwiches and chocolate milk.

A skating party was held early in 1961. Relays and pleasure skating were sufficient to tire most of the students. The final project undertaken by the committee was the traditional tobogganning party.

THE ORCHESTRA COMMITTEE

Clarence Redekop, Brenda Peters, J. P. Redekopp, Murray Enns, Louise Dyck (missing from picture).

The Winkler Symphony Orchestra has had two activity-packed years. In the fall of the 1959-60 term we were requested to perform at the Trustee Convention in Winnipeg and were served a full-course meal at the Mall Hotel. Later on that year the orchestra joined the choir to present a Christmas Carol Service. The following spring the Winkler group joined orchestras from Winnipeg and B.C. in an orchestra clinic in Winnipeg and gave a final concert in the Civic Auditorium under the direction of Victor Feldbrill, the conductor of the Winnipeg Symphony Orchestra. To end the year we gave our traditional Spring Concert in the School Auditorium.

This year the orchestra had the privilege of giving a concert at the Rural Folks Festival in Winnipeg which was sponsored by Manitoba Pool Elevators. The evening came to a climax when we received a big dinner at the "Highwayman." The orchestra is now planning to attend an orchestra clinic in Brandon similar to the one in Winnipeg last year. In order to raise money for the trip we are giving concerts in Plum Coulee, Gretna, and Winkler. We, as an orchestra group, have enjoyed the last two years of orchestra work very much and next year promises to be just as challenging.

THE CHOIR COMMITTEE

Singing is one of the feature activities in the Winkler Collegiate. Every student is encouraged to take part in the choir. However, the choir is made up entirely of volunteer singers. It has its regular practices during the last period of Wednesday afternoon. Extra practices are held either at noon or during some free evening.

Last year the choir started its busy programme by singing in the various churches. The regular Christmas Carol Service took place in the M.B. Church on December 11th. On entering the Winnipeg Festival, the choir was fortunate in winning the J.S. Little Trophy. It also went on to take the Dr. S.S. Toni Trophy in the Southern Manitoba Musical Festival. The choir was honoured when it was asked to represent the German Ethnic Group in the "Manitoba Saluted Her Ethnic Groups" Festival in Winnipeg. In May the annual spring concert was given together with the orchestra.

More or less the same pattern is being followed this year. The Carol Service was presented on the 8th of December this year. In February the choir put on a half hour program over radio station C.F.A. 14. The festival and the annual spring concert in May will close off another busy but happy year for the choir.

The Literary Committee

Helen Loewen, Leona Toews, Ruth Jazen, Margaret Dyck.

A fairly good crowd attended our first literary meeting. The main features were reports delivered by two Grade Twelve students. Howard Dyck talked about his experience at the United Nations Seminar in Brandon. Howard had had the privilege of going on a trip to see the UN at work; a trip which included such points as Ottawa and New York. He was one of the two Manitoba students to have this privilege. David Zacharias spoke on the Civil Defense course he took in Ottawa. He travelled to Ottawa with five other Manitoba students.

Special musical numbers were rendered by talented students. Among these were a woodwinds trio, a vocal solo, a piano duet and several selections sung by the Collegiate Quartet.

The second program which took place after Christmas consisted of a ninety minute film. It told about the experience of a German who had fled from Berlin to Bayern and how he finally succeeded in returning to Berlin. The film was educational and enjoyable.

THE I. S. C. F. EXECUTIVE

The Inter-School Christian Fellowship is an inter-denominational organization which operates in high schools all over.

We feel that it is quite worth our while to set our homework aside for one hour on Monday evenings to attend I. S. C. F.

A western style "Fall Roundup" opened the year with such features as 'calf roping', 'bronco busting', wieners and a challenging address by staff member Verne Scott.

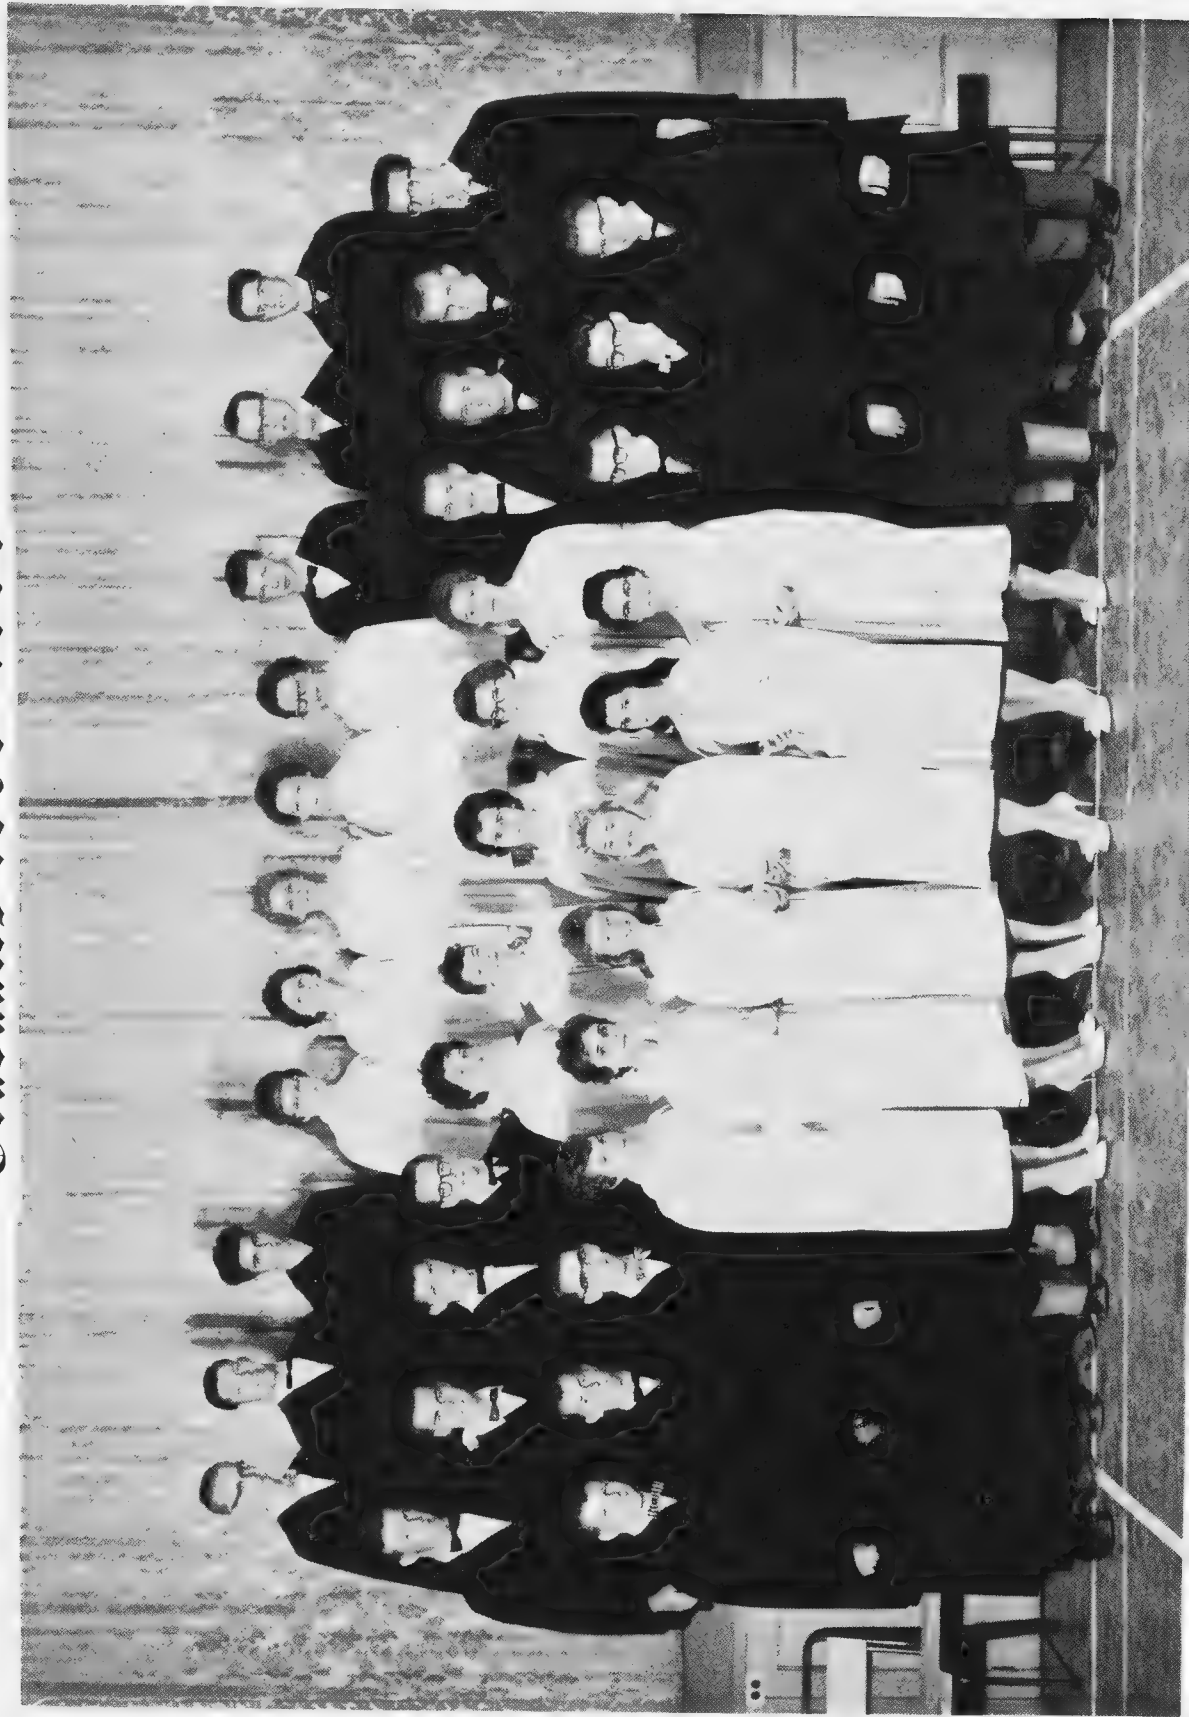

Following this we have devoted one third of our meetings to Bible Study at which we discussed topics helpful to the maintenance of a better Christian witness.

Our other meetings had as their main item guest speakers, special features and two inspiring films entitled "Goal to Go" and a Moody Science film "Windows of the Soul." Some special attractions have been a monologue "The Triumph of John and Betty Stam" and "The Christian Faith on Trial" featuring a trial by jury with the Christian Faith the defendant.

Monday and Friday mornings before school, those who wish to, gather together for a short period of prayer.

Special credit is due to our sponsor, Don Kroeker, and our staff member Verne Scott for their advice and guidance. Thanks are also extended to those others that contributed to making our I. S. C. F. a success.
